

In silence we give ourselves to God

Spend 24 hours seeking God. The majority of your time will be spent in silence and solitude, but this time of seeking will be interspersed with fellowship, food, and sleep.

What if I've never done this kind of thing before?
There will be a time of orientation with materials to help you get started.

May kids attend?
If your children are old enough to read and sit quietly in God's presence, they are welcome to come. But if you will need to coach and inspire them a lot then you might make this a time to attend without your kids.

Do I have to turn off my cell phone?
It is not required, but recommended.

What to Expect

Expect the unexpected. There is no way to predict what this time will mean for you. If you are looking for some great emotional high, it may not happen. If you are hoping to get a “once and for all answer” to a long asked question, it may not happen. But you can be assured that the screaming noises of life will fade into quiet and rest. Most importantly, you can expect that you will know God better by the end of the time. He may speak clearly to you, or you may just find that even in the stillness, He is faithful. You will be reminded that He is and that you are his. As you courageously step fully into a day of Sabbath, God will be honored and you will be blessed.
